

Playing Adult Rugby Form

The decision to allow a male 17 year old to play adult rugby in accordance with RFU Regulation 15.3.7, or a female 17 year old to play adult rugby in accordance with RFU Regulation 15.5.5, lies with the person in the best position to assess all the relevant circumstances.

Note: Please see separate form in relation to England Academy Players.

1. The ultimate consideration must be for the welfare and safety of the player and those with whom the player will be playing.
2. There has and will be clear communication with all those involved in and affected by the decision.
3. The following aspects must be taken into consideration when making the decision:
 - i. The physical development of the individual and the player's playing colleagues
 - ii. The skill level and experience of the individual
 - iii. The individual's playing position in the team
 - iv. The competitive standard of the particular match and playing conditions.
